The Cleansing Program

During the Life Mastery portion of your event you will be participating in a cleanse. Because the Cleansing Program is an integral part of your experience at Life Mastery we have packaged the program into the room rate during your Life Mastery stay. The Cleansing Program includes juices made with the freshest organic vegetables and fruits, wheatgrass, Udo's Oil, and a raw meal to enter and exit the cleanse.

Generally, any person in good health should be able to complete the Cleansing Program. If for medical reasons you cannot cleanse (raw food juices, wheat grass, and essential oils) or participate in the Cleansing Program, we can suggest soups and raw foods from the regular resort menu. All participants must stay at the host hotel. If for some reason you are not at the host hotel and are participating in the Cleansing Program, you will need to purchase it directly from the hotel prior to registration. (If you are participating in Wealth Mastery alone, the Cleansing Program is not a part of your event or the room rate.)

Clean Meal Program

For Life Mastery participants who want to continue with a clean eating lifestyle, we have designed a clean meal plan for your Wealth Mastery event to optimize your results! This program is more hearty than the Cleanse and will help you integrate and practice what you've learned. It is also packaged into your room rate for your convenience.
