Date With Destiny

Most people become who they are through random chance—each experience shapes who they are, and creates boundaries for future experiences. But a block of marble exposed to the elements will never turn into Michaelangelo's David. Your course through life is determined by the decisions you make, moment by moment. These decisions and the actions that result from them are ultimately determined by your beliefs, values, rules and experiences. When these forces are in conflict or chaos, the inevitable result is self-sabotage. You feel uncertain, frustrated, or challenged. However, if you could align these powerful forces, they would pull you in the direction of your ultimate vision, empowering you with a clarity that will bring joy and fulfillment to your relationships and a life with the passion and purpose that you need to realize your dreams.

Set your course for the life you've always wanted!
